Red Wall Killings Anger Berliners

BERLIN (UPI) — A wave of protest and indignation swept through this divided city today over the fatal shooting by East German guards of two German men fleeing to freedom through the Berlin wall.

A third companion was wounded and an East German girl captured when the men attempted to crash their car Sunday into the fortifications at the Heinrich Heine Strasse crossing.

"No nation can put up with this," said the mass circulation Bild Zeitung today in an editorial. The tabloid compared the Soviet-controlled Eastern zone to a Nazi concentration camp.

During the night a small group of West Berlin youths demonstrated at the checkpoint where the incident occurred. They carried a banner reading, "How long will we put up with murder."

Holiday Spirit

The West German driver of the car carrying the three East Germans to the West died of wounds about 30 feet from a lighted Christmas tree set up by the Communists to show their holiday spirit. A second man fell wounded from the car and lay on the street giving no sign of life and was believed dead.

The American, British and French commandants denounced the shooting as "wanton killing." They said it was all the more shocking because it took place over the Christmas holidays.

"It is time this senseless killing cease," said the Allied commandants in a statement drawn up by the United States.

The incident also placed a damper on the joy over holiday reunions of families split by the wall.

But the Communists today defended their action, blaming the West for instigating the attempted crossing, and warning that "provocateurs" will meet a similar fate.

Crashes Into Pole

Communist guards opened fire with about 50 rounds of tommy gun fire from a watchtower as Heinz Schoeneberger, a 27-year-old West German, raced his automobile through the checkpoint towards an opening in the wall. The car crashed into a pole set across the opening.

It said the Viet Cong had ordered a 12-hour cease fire on Christmas Eve "to enable the Catholics in the ranks of the U. S. and mercenary troops to celebrate Christmas in safety."

But, it added, the Viet Cong declaration "caused great confusion to the U. S. aggressors" and "as a counter-measure, the U. S. aggressive ringleaders also ordered the U. S. and puppet troops to observe a ceasefire on Christmas Eve."

"But as a rule, the aggressors never kept their promise."

It quoted a Western news agency report as saying that on Dec. 25, an artillery unit of the U. S. 1st Air Cavalry division continued firing for nearly four hours after the truce period went into effect at 6 p.m.

Scientists Get Close Look At Hawaii Volcano

HILO, Hawaii (UPI) — Scientists won their day-long battle Sunday against rain and sulfur fumes which hampered their efforts to get a look at the Alo volcano that erupted with a glow that could be seen ten miles away.

The crater, in a desolate area of the big island of Hawaii, erupted Friday night, sending molten lava down the mountainside for five hours.

Scientists and road repair crews entered the vicinity of the 800-foot crater Sunday after being barred from the area by the rain and fumes.

Geophysicist William Kinoshita said the scientists were equipped with portable seismic recording instruments and devices to measure lava flow.

Earth rumblings preceded the eruption and opened a six-foot hole in the chain of craters road that leads to Hawaii's Volcano National Park, and smaller fissures were reported elsewhere.

More Propaganda

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Russia and Red China are spending large sums of money broadcasting propaganda to the United States, but the listening audience is small, according to the director of the Voice of America.

John Chancellor, head of the agency, said the Moscow and Peking programs were effective in some parts of the world but not in North America, although the two nations are spending "a great deal of money" on the shows.

Today's Chuckle

One reason that Americans won't go Communist is that when they hear the shout "Workers Arise" they think it's time for the coffee break.

Disabled Plane Lands On Busy Hudson Bridge

NEW YORK (UPI) — To thousands of motorists the George Washington Bridge is just another way of crossing the Hudson River between New York and New Jersey.

To a teen-aged pilot in a disabled plane high over the river Sunday, the giant span suddenly became an alternative to a plunge into the frigid Hudson.

The pilot, Phillip Ippolito, 19, of New York City, and his passenger, Joseph Brennan, 23, of Hackensack, N. J., were soaring along in their small Aeronca aircraft when the motor faltered and they began losing power and altitude.

Ippolito said he considered setting down the $10-an-hour rented plane in the river but when Brennan said, "I can't swim," he decided to try a landing on the 3,500-foot bridge, where traffic seemed to be relatively light.

The plucky pilot guided the tiny craft toward a smooth touchdown on the two unused center lanes of the bridge despite high winds gusting up to 30 miles an hour.

He almost had it made, but wing tip grazed a trailer truck tipping over the plane and damaging its wings, propeller and nose.

We were patting ourselves on the back for making a good landing — till my right wing tip hit the truck," the youthful pilot said later.

The intrepid Ippolito suffered only cuts of the face. His passenger had broken teeth and face cuts. Both were treated at Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center in Manhattan.

The plane had taken off at about 9 a.m. from Ramapo Valley Air Port in Rockland County, N. Y., and was proceeding to Red Bank, N. J.

According to Ippolito, the little plane's gas cap came off near the bridge forcing him to land on the 450-foot high span.

Mountain Disaster Kills 6 In France

C L E R MONT - FERRAND.

France (UPI) — Magistrates and police today launched an official inquiry into a Christmas Day mountain disaster in which a swinging aerial cable car burst open and spilled 23 vacationers onto rocks and snow beneath, killing six and injuring 12.

Authorities planned a full reconstruction of the accident — one of the worst in recent French mountaineering history. Swirling fog and clouds still blanketing 5,694-foot Puy de Sancy in the Monte Dore range of central France hampered detailed investigations. Officials said it might hold up the reconstruction.

All the victims were French — most of them teenage members of an Orleans ski club.

Football Fever Exodus Begins

EAST LANSING (UPI) — The exodus of football fever bitten Michigan State University students has begun.

About 3,200 students and faculty members left East Lansing Sunday as the advance corp of a group of approximately 14,500 persons who will be in Pasadena on New Years Day to back the Spartans in the Rose Bowl clash with UCLA.

Over 2,500 students and close to 700 alumni left Sunday, traveling by jet airliners, prop airplanes, trains or buses. Depending upon which mode of transportation each individual chose, they faced a ride of from four hours on a jet to 53 hours if the choice was a bus or car.

Of the 14,500 tickets sold by Michigan State for the game, 8,500 were sold to students, 2,200 to alumni and 3,800 to football season ticket holders. The rest of the ticket holders are traveling out by means of their own transportation, commercial transportation or on commercial tours.

Three of the injured at the Hotel Dieu Hospital here were reported today still in serious condition.

The 60-passenger cable car was about 120 feet from the top of the cone-shaped peak when the electric current went off, bringing the car to a violent halt.

Passengers and their stacked skis were flung against the front of the car, which burst open with an explosion that could be heard miles around and 23 persons were spilled on to the snow-covered mountain-side below.

Fire Kills 3 At Royal Oak

ROYAL OAK (UPI) — A mother and her two infant children burned to death Sunday in a house fire authorities said may have been started by defective Christmas tree lights.

The victims were identified as Ada Siracuse, 24, and her daughters, Gina, 18 months, and Nina, 4 months.

Fire Department spokesmen in the Detroit suburb said Mrs. Siracuse and her children were in the upstairs of their duplex apartment when the fire started early in the morning.

Authorities said Mrs. Siracuse's husband, Joseph, was downstairs at the time of the fire and escaped with only minor injuries.

The downstairs portion of the apartment was gutted in the fire which blazed for two hours. The flames did not carry to the other side of the duplex and there were no additional injuries reported.

Authorities said they pinpointed the origin of the fire in the living room but did not know what caused the blaze. They speculated, however, faulty Christmas tree lights or defective wiring in the home may have been responsible.

Estranged Wife Knifed To Death

DETROIT (UPI) — Macomb County officials today were expected to seek a murder warrant for a man who stabbed his estranged wife to death after he came home for a Christmas Eve visit with his four children.

Macomb County Sheriff's Dept. said the children were sleeping in a bedroom in their suburban Mount Clemens home while Stanley Edward Szysla, 30, slashed their mother to death and wounded her boyfriend, Ronald Sankovich, 31, when he came to her defense.

Police wounded Szysla as he charged them with a hunting knife. Szysla and Sankovich both were reported in fair condition at hospitals.

After he was wounded, Sankovich crawled through a cold rain to a neighbor's home and telephoned the sheriff's department. Four deputies rushed to the home, Szysla ignored their orders to stop and charged them with a bloody knife before they stopped him with one shot from a submachine gun.

Police said Szysla was having a drink with his wife after seeing the children when an argument erupted over custody of the four children who lived with Mrs. Szysla.

Deputies said Szysla began choking his wife, stabbed Sankovich when he tried to pull him away from her and then slashed Mrs. Szysla seven times.

Killings Reach All-Time High Over Holiday

By United Press International
The nation's traffic death toll set an all-time Christmas holiday record today as the count zoomed past the old mark of 706 set 10 years ago.

A United Press International count showed at least 710 traffic fatalities during the holiday period which began at 6 p.m. local time Thursday and ended at 11:59 p.m. Sunday.

A United Press International count showed at least 688 persons had been killed between 6 p.m. local time Thursday and midnight Sunday.

The breakdown:
Traffic 688
Fires 55
Planes 5 Miscellaneous 53
Total 801

Texas led the nation with 52 traffic deaths reported during the holiday period closely followed by California with 51. Ohio had 49.

Pickup 7th pgh: Only Alaska

Only Alaska, Hawaii, Montana and South Dakota had a clean record of no highway fatalities.

Twelve persons died when a San Francisco-bound Greyhound bus skidded off an icy interstate highway near Rogue River, Ore., early Christmas Eve. A two-car auto collision near Sublette, Kan., claimed seven lives Sunday and five persons were killed in a two-car mishap near Buffalo, Minn., Sunday.

The worst fire of the holiday took the lives of eight persons early Friday when a blaze swept an apartment house in Newark, N.J.

Siamese Twins Born Christmas Day In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Siamese twin girls, born Christmas Day and separated by emergency surgery, today were given a 50-50 chance of survival by doctors.

A delicate surgical operation, performed one hour after birth, separated the twins, Sheila Norine and Lisa Marie Mantonya, who were joined at the bladders.

The girls' mother, Mrs. Robyn Mantonya, who celebrated her 20th birthday Sunday, was reported in good condition at a hospital 20 miles away.

The girls were rushed to another hospital after birth for the surgery, conducted by a team of 17 surgeons, doctors, nurses and technicians.

The surgery left one of the girls with an incomplete intestinal tract and the doctors had to perform additional remedial surgery.

Row Crops Give Way For Trees On Chatham Farm

Michigan State University's Upper Peninsula experimental agricultural station at Chatham in Alger County, which has been famed for its experimentation in farm crops for the past 66 years, is getting a new assignment.

Some 10,000 pine seedlings will be planted at the Chatham Station next spring in the start of a research project aimed at producing better, faster-growing trees for the Upper Peninsula's forest industry.

Some 10,000 pine seedling will be planted at the Chatham Station next spring in the start of a research project aimed at producing better, faster-growing trees for the Upper Peninsula's forest industry.

There has been forest management experimentation at Chatham through the years when it gave its accent to U.P. farm development but this is a new accent. It acknowledges in new dimensions of research the part of forestry in U.P. agriculture.

When the Michigan Legislature created the Chatham station in 1899 it was a general belief that the plow would follow the axe and that the U.P.'s forest lands should be converted to farmlands as rapidly as possible to return greatest wealth from the soil's growth potential. Since then thousands of acres of farmlands have been planted back to trees because they were unsuited to tillage and farm crop production as we know it today.

Genetic Studies

The beginning of the Chatham project will largely concentrate on genetic improvement of trees to help revitalize an industry which is falling far short of potential.

"At present, about 88 per cent of the U.P. is in forest land," commented Roy Skog, MSU forestry specialist for Upper Peninsula. "Furthermore, more people are employed in the forest industry in this region than any other segment of the economy."

"Much of the present forest acreage is stocked with slow-growing, poor-quality trees. We hope to expand forestry research to provide the quality trees needed for timber, recreation, watersheds and wildlife."

The research project, under the direction of MSU forestry researcher Jonathan W. Wright, will begin with studies on genetic improvement of growth rate, insect and disease resistance, and other desirable characteristics. The first plantings will include jack, red and eastern white pines.

Work With Forest Service

Wright, who has already started extensive genetic studies throughout Michigan, noted that the Chatham project should provide the additional size and scope necessary to make forestry research more effective for the state.

"We plan to work in cooperation with the U.S. Forest Service," he said. "And, as soon as possible, we will expand our efforts to include hardwoods, particularly yellow birch. The yellow birch is the most valuable northern hardwood timber species and is widely used in high grade furniture and wall paneling."

Wright noted that the genetic research promises to increase growth rates 10 to 20 per cent within the next decade or two.

"But this is only the beginning," he noted. "Better nutrition can make still further increases in productivity. Long-range plans for the Chatham project include studies on tree nutrition and harvesting methods."

"With an all-around effect, the importance of the U.P. forests can constantly increase."

Wright and his colleagues feel that the forestry program is an important addition to the MSU Experiment Station at Chatham which, under the supervision of Charles J. (Jack) Little, is already conducting many other experiments related to agriculture and natural resources.

Death Takes Mrs. Dobson

Mrs. Donald L. Dobson, the former Betty Jean Kelly of Escanaba, died Saturday evening in Durand, Ill., where the Dobsons reside at Little Beck Farm.

Born in Escanaba on Sept. 14, 1920, she was graduated from Escanaba High School in 1938 and left Escanaba soon thereafter, returning here frequently on visits.

Surviving are her husband, two children, Thomas and Suzanne at home; a foster-daughter, Mrs. Charles Killman of Beacon, N. Y.; her mother, Mrs. John Anderson, who is the former Mrs. William P. Kelly of Escanaba; and one sister, Mrs. Emil Larson of Iron Mountain.

The funeral services will be held at the Rusan, Eukling and Kencar Funeral Home, Beloit, Wis., at 1:30 p. m., Tuesday.

Attending the funeral from Escanaba will be Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, who left today; and Miss Carol Beggs and her brother, Charles Beggs, who will leave for Durand Tuesday morning.

Children's Charter Is Given Grant

The W. K. Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek has given Children's Charter of the Courts of Michigan, Inc., headquartered in Kalamazoo, a grant of $280,065 to continue its work for the next three years.

Additional funds of $174,160 for 1969-70 are contingent upon developing self-financing plans.

Since 1961 the Charter has been providing consultation on matters affecting juvenile courts, on development of regional detention facilities, in studying probation and other social services in courts handling problems of children and the family and on relationships between the juvenile and adult criminal courts affecting the juvenile delinquent and the youthful offender.

Delta Probate Judge Marie D. Peters of Escanaba is a director of the Children's Charter.

Hanna Brazil Co. Merges, Expands

Two major mining companies, St. John d'el Rey Mining Co., and Companhia Auxiliar de Empresas de Mineracao (CAEMI), have combined their Brazilian iron ore properties to form a new Brazilian company with ore reserves ranking among the greatest in the world.

Formation of the new company, Mineracao Brasileira Reunidas (MBR), was announced in the United States by Leo Model, chairman of St. John d'el Rey and by W. A. Marting, president of Hanna Mining Co., which hold a controlling interest in St. John.

Assets of MBR consist of the iron ore properties and facilities in Brazil of CAEMI and St. John, each of which had 1966 production targets in the 800,000 to 1,000,000-ton range. MBR is prepared for a substantial expansion of this capacity, for both internal and export consumption, and possible construction of a pellet plant.

Fights, Thefts Mar Christmas Weekend Here

A broken nose, a youth knocked unconscious from booze or a bump on the head, four burglaries, a home fire, and a variety of complaints to police because of family arguments marred the holiday weekend in Escanaba.

The nose was broken at the Go-Go dance spot that opened recently at 1922 Ludington St., police reported. The youth, 16, told police that he was struck in the face by another boy about 11 p.m. Christmas Eve. He was taken to St. Francis Hospital for treatment.

Police were summoned shortly before 11 o'clock the same night to the rear of the Go-Go where several boys were reportedly intoxicated. The police report reveals that one youth, 18, was taken unconscious to the hospital. He had a bruised head and X-rays were made to determine the extent of injury. He was released from the hospital today. The police investigation is continuing.

The breaking and enterings were the night of the 25th or the morning of the 26th.

The Sylvan Point gas station was entered by breaking a pane of glass in an overhead door. One tire valued at $35 is missing, it was reported to police.

The Northern Motor Co. garage at 1419 Ludington St. had the glass broken in the door on the 15th St. side and drawers in the office were ransacked. There were no apparent losses, police were informed.

Two stations at Ludington and 14th St. were broken into the night of the 26th. At the Emil Auger station glass was broken in the door to gain entrance and soft drink and cigarette vending machines were extensively damaged by the thieves. An estimated $10 to $15 in coins is missing.

Bun's Service station was also attempted by the thieves.

who broke glass in the door but may not have gained entrance. There appeared to have been nothing taken, police were told.

While police officers were kept busy with a variety of complaints over the Christmas weekend, firemen were called out twice. At 4:05 p.m., on the 25th, firemen were summoned to the home of Mrs. Hector LaChapelle, 308 N. 21st St., where a blaze of undetermined origin caused extensive damage from heat and smoke. The flames were largely confined to the living room area, firemen said. There was no one home at the time of the blaze.

Firemen were called to the Glen Meyers dwelling, 1326 N. 23rd St., at 1:50 a.m. today. There was no damage caused by the chimney fire.

U. S. Steel To Treat Sewage On Lake Vessels

Cleveland — Continuing its voluntary program of water pollution abatement, U.S. Steel Corp., has announced plans to install shipboard sewage disposal systems on three more of its cessels, the steamers Olds, Fairless and Fraser. The work will be done at the vessels' lay-up ports of Lorain and Conneaut, O., respectively. The sewage facilities will be composed of two complete plants on each ship, one in the forward end and the other in the after end. They will serve all of the living and working areas aboard the vessels.

The sewage disposal plants are a combination of the activated sludge process and the aerobic digestion process which will treat the shipboard sewage to conform to the quality criteria for such effluents proposed by water control authorities. Clarified effluent is passed through a chlorination chamber for disinfection before being moved into a holding tank for final disposal. Complete digestion of sewage will take about 30 hours.

The Money Illusion

There seems to be general agreement now that the Federal Reserve Board's action in raising the discount rate on loans to banks will have only moderate influence in increasing the interest for loan seekers. In earlier efforts to curb inflation the Federal Reserve Board not only increased borrowing costs, but also restricted the supply of loanable funds at banks. This time the Fed's policy is different—it is making more loanable funds available—so the result will be different. It is expected to continue monetary inflation on a less active scale.

Out of the unhappiness in the Johnson Administration with the independent action of the Federal Reserve Board in ordering the increased discount rate to curb inflation have come suggestions that the nation's central banking system—the Federal Reserve—be placed under the control of the administration.

This is not a new suggestion, but it is being given new urgency by the Fed's action in telling the nation that it saw danger signs of inflation and was duty bound to act to prevent it. The President doesn't want the current boom knocked in the head and he'll be making some changes in the Federal Reserve Board as its members' terms expire.

We are more concerned here with the validity of the suggestion that the administration should control the Federal Reserve Banks, not the independent Federal Reserve Board. Harvard economist John Kenneth Galbraith has urged that President Johnson be given "ultimate authority" over the discount rate and other operations of the Federal Reserve Board.

Galbraith said that to give the President authority over the Fed would require only a simple resolution of Congress and no massive reconstruction of the national banking laws. The board's right to act independently of the President, said Galbraith, had survived only because it had not interfered with the government's management of the economy. If its authority was to be used it would have to be removed, he suggested.

Yale economist Henry C. Wallich disagreed. (In economics as in psychiatry you can get a professor for either side of any case.) Wallich urged that the Fed be continued independent. The President has no means of controlling fiscal policy either, he said—taxes and expenditures are determined by Congress, not the President. "In our own system of checks and balances, there seems to be no anomaly in the kind of independence that the Federal Reserve enjoys," said Wallich.

The professors who urge inflation, he suggested, are deeply concerned about unemployment. They believe in a high pressure economy, which, kept perking with easy money and large deficits, will reduce unemployment. Unions will demand more and employers won't resist wage increases far beyond productivity gains. Costs will rise and wages and prices will chase each other in a never ending spiral.

If the inflationists could deliver on this promise they'd have to be considered seriously, suggests Wallich, because, while inflation is bad, so is unemployment. But the bargain collapses because it's based on the false belief that you can fool all the people all the time. The economists know better; they understand that labor and capital can't get more than the economy produces; that if employers and borrowers promise more, inflation takes it away from them. But the great mass of people won't catch on, because it suffers from "money illusion." This illusion dupes people into believing that big pay increases buy something.

Wallich doesn't think that people are that dumb. He thinks that as soon as inflation can be predicted reliably it will be discounted. Unions seeking a 5 per cent wage increase will ask for 9 per cent to offset the inflationary loss. Savers will ask more interest. All such demands, of course, accelerate inflation and there must be a final reckoning some time to prevent a collapse of the currency. (Money is a medium of exchange, and increasingly not an intrinsic value.)

For the President to control the Federal Reserve Board as well as to wield a strong influence on national fiscal policy may solve the President's problems of coordinating the taxing and the lending policies in control of the economy. But it poses new problems.

The pressures upon the administration now include need to conform to the minimum demands of the Federal Reserve Board to protect the soundness of our money. If the administration controls this process, too, it will be under a dangerous temptation to encourage enough inflation to keep the economy booming because that's how it gets elected. But the spiral can't go on forever. If employers promise more than production permits, a bust is inevitable.

The Doctor Says:

Use Care In Picking Pole

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

Pole vaulting has become a terribly pigeon-toed. Would it spectacular and popular sport help if she wore her shoes on with the invention of the glass the opposite feet?

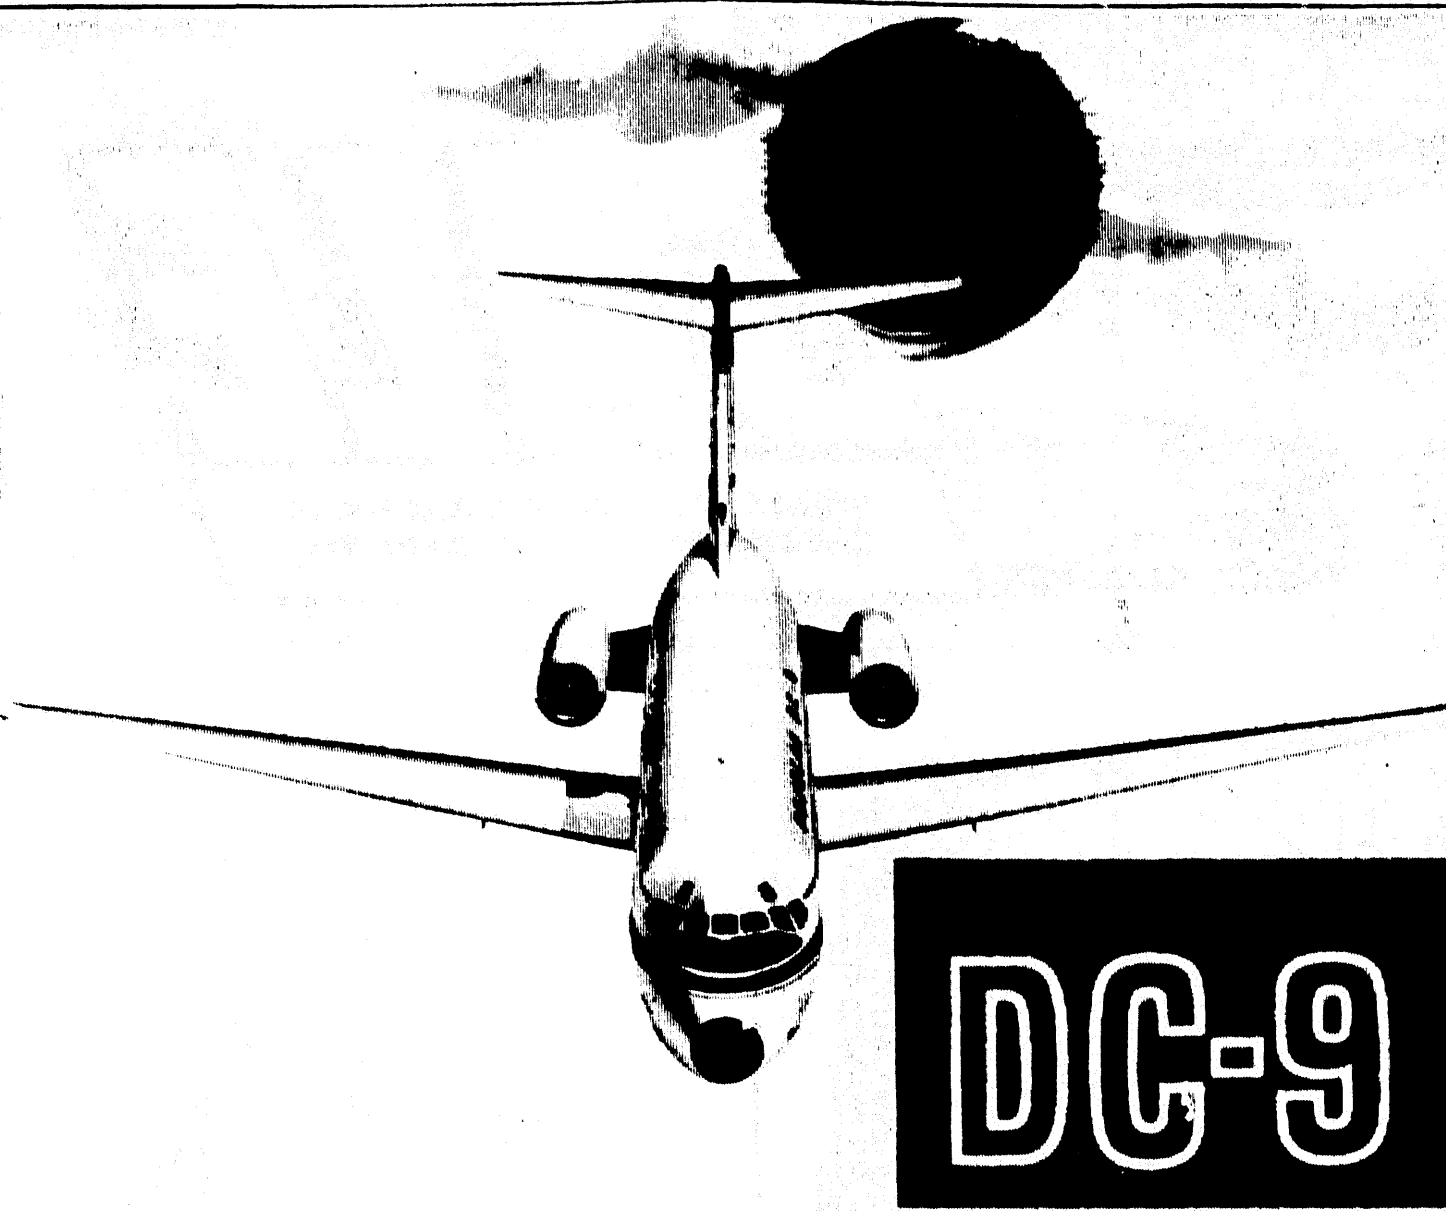

A — Pigeon-toe is usually associated with a high-arched foot. son to heights never attained Although a mild degree of pigeon-toe may be advantageous, a every new advantage is attended by its own special disadvantage.

In this case the disadvantage is associated with misuse. Glass fiber poles come in assorted weights. Each weight is designed to correspond to the weight of the user.

When the proper weight is used the pole is virtually unbreakable and therefore perfectly safe. But enthusiastic youngsters too often are tempted to use a lighter pole than the one specified. It is true that if your son is lucky such a pole may lift him higher than the heavier pole he should be using, but this is too much like playing Russian roulette. If he is not so lucky, and the pole snaps, he may be impaled on one of the fragments.

Parents and coaches must make sure that their high-flying charges understand this and never use too light a pole.

Bonanza, Continental, Delta, Eastern, Hawaiian, Iberia, KLM, North Central, Northeast, Ozark, Pacific Southwest, Saudi Arabian, Southern, Swissair, TWA, Trans-Australia, Trans-Canada, West Coast.

SHAPE OF THINGS to come! This advertisement of Douglas Aircraft Corp. for its new DC-9 jet airliner notes that North Central Airlines, which serves Menominee, Escanaba, Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette, Iron Mountain, Houghton and Ironwood in the Upper Peninsula, has placed orders for this new jet airliner with Douglas. First delivery for North Central will be in 1967 and first Upper Peninsula service by jets is indicated for 1968. In preparation for the service

Marquette is planning extension of a runway at its county airport. The Menominee Area Chamber of Commerce has urged the Menominee County Board of Supervisors to replace the Menominee County Airport terminal building and extend a port runway for jet service. Escanaba and Iron Mountain airports would have to extend their long runways to accommodate jet airliners.

25 YEARS AGO

Jeslyn Jackson of Escanaba demonstrates the first step of the kick turn, a simple way to reverse direction on skis, for the benefit of June Ranguette, Pat Glavin, Mary Ann Hoyler, Marcella Fallmer, Elaine Poquette, Marcella Prova and Marguerite Westbrook.

Frank Karas, Michigan State College tackle and outstanding grid performer during the 1940 season, will be honored guest at the annual Michigan State Alumni Get-Together here at the Ludington Hotel. Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Karas, 815 S. 11th St.

Dr. Harold Groos, in District One, Patrick Connelly of 1125 11th Ave. S., in District Two, and Rudolph Larson, 1001 Sheridan Road, in District Three, are first place winners in Escanaba's 1940 outdoor Christmas Lighting Contest, sponsored jointly by the Lions club and the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce.

50 YEARS AGO Coiled about the stem of a bunch of bananas that was opened at the Scandia Co-operative company's store at North Escanaba by Miss Agnes Carlson, an immense banana snake that measured three feet in length, was discovered.

When found the snake was dormant from the cold and was easily taken from the bunch of bananas. It is known as a banana ruff snake and its bite is said to be deadly poisonous.

It was moved to Victor Johnson's menagerie in North Escanaba where in the warmth of the room it soon regained normal activity and was the object of much interest throughout the day.

Impressive services marked the celebration of Midnight Mass at St. Patrick's church. For the occasion a special mass was prepared by the choir that was presented with orchestra accompaniment, with H. O. Brotherton directing the orchestra.

Thorny Issues

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The projected springtime White House Conference on Civil Rights is seen by some observers on the racial front as providing a chance for sorely needed improvement in dangerously edgy white-Negro relationships.

The McCone report on the Watts riots in Los Angeles underlines the explosive peril churning near the surface among alienated lower class urban Negroes.

Further evidence comes continuously from the harsh utterances of frustrated militant Negro leaders, who have stepped up their hammer blows on the white community as if trying to find a voice suitable to the people of Watts.

For all their effort, they seem largely unacceptable to the Negroes of Watts and similar big city ghettos.

Comedian Dick Gregory, no quiet moderate, is contemptuously dismissed by ghetto residents as among those Negroes "you whites try to choose for us as the leaders you think we ought to have."

Notwithstanding an expected spring avalanche of proposals affecting Negro prospects in jobs, housing, schooling, physical security and courtroom justice, the springtime White House parley may find the frayed links between whites and Negroes an imperative piece of business.

One Civil Rights observer

suggests that, as a major move toward a new accommodation, conference authorities should invite top spokesmen for such "white establishment" organizations as the National Association of Manufacturers, the American Bar Association, the American Legion, a variety of other civic and professional groups.

Says this observer: "These groups ought to be drawn into this, to be encouraged to see that the Negro problem is just as much theirs as it is a matter for government or civil rights organizations."

The underlying notion is that the whole of white America is actually involved but that the necessary important initiatives can come only from the "power elements" which thus far have too often stood aloof from the struggle.

This same observer contends further that a collision between these elements and the stubborn realities of the Negro problem may persuade them that the social and economic costs of not solving it could ultimately prove a disastrous burden for the whole country.

A bluntly presented tally of the mounting tax load ascribable to Negro distress in America, particularly in the flourishing cities, might stun "power structure businessmen" who think of the problem as being somebody else's. They have a vital stake in real solutions.

At the same time, it is being argued here that Negroes for their part also need to exhibit a new spirit.

The substance of the most strident Negro responses today seems to be that white America has victimized the Negro for at least a century and that, therefore, virtually the entire burden of correcting this condition must fall upon the white community.

White sympathizers with Negro aspirations, even as they realize they are increasingly suspect in today's strained situation, nevertheless insist that Negroes also must change in attitude and conduct if any kind of workable harmony is ever to be achieved in America.

The argument of one psychological specialist here is that the long history of warped white-Negro relationships has inevitably damaged both sides and that both in consequence must engage heavily in the repair process. White action alone, it is contended, will not give the Negro the place in society he seeks.

Sympathizers understand that this approach demands of Negroes a mature acceptance of criticism, a hard self-appraisal, and a new compassion for white Americans that cannot come easily to revolutionary spirits stirring after long decades of distress.

Ann Landers

Pierced Noses Idea Ridiculed

Dear Ann Landers: It was wonderful to read your column that pierced ears are "in" and that you heartily approve of ears for girls 16 or over, provided, of course, that the procedure is performed by a physician and not "a friend with an icepick." The final announcement came with your own brave announcement that YOUR ears are pierced.

I have traveled extensively, Miss Landers, and I have noticed that in some areas of Africa the women have their noses pierced. They wear a small bone through the hole. This is considered "in" provided the bone is not too large or pretentious.

For a long time I have wanted to popularize pierced noses in the United States but I have been unable to get anyone to help me. If you would lead the way -- perhaps run a photograph of your self with the bone--the young girls could say "See mother, it's all right, Ann Landers wears one herself."

My failure to get this trend started has me so depressed that I am considering psychiatric help. What can you suggest? -- MAU MAU MANNY

Dear Manny: Why don't you put a rubber band around your head and snap out of it?

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are a working couple. The apartment next door was rented last September to a newly married couple.

We couldn't care less about other people's business, but these two have terrible fights at least twice a week. They yell, they curse and they throw things at each other. It becomes really intolerable when he hits her and she screams for mercy. This has happened four times-- three times after midnight and once when we had guests for dinner.

Please tell us what to do. Talking to the people is out of the question. My husband even refuses to say "Good Morning" to them. Can the landlord make these people move. Thanks for your counsel.-- THIN WALLS AND SHATTERED NERVES

Dear Thin and Shattered: As tenants you are entitled to peace and quiet. Speak to the landlord at once. He may ask you to call him the next time the couple has a fight follow his instructions.

Dear Ann Landers: I married a man whose wife died three years earlier. Their little boy Jim was just learning to walk. The two older children were six and seven.

I was thrilled to become a wife and mother all at once. I adored those children and took them to my heart as my very own. They called me Mom and I loved the sound of the word.

The two older children are married now and we have a fine relationship. It is Jim I am writing about. Last week he brought a young woman home with him from college. When he introduced me, he said, "Mary, I want you to meet my stepmother." Ann, I was so hurt I almost broke down and cried. In all his life Jim has never called me anything but Mom.

My husband says, "Ignore it." But how can I? I wonder how many stepparents who read your column feel as I do? Am I overly sensitive? Should I tell Jim how he hurt me? -- BE-WILDERED

Dear B.: Some stepparents do not object to the term, others do. Those who do, should speak up.

Tell Jim you were disturbed when he introduced you as his stepmother because you were proud he had always called you "Mom." I'll bet it won't happen again.

If excessive drinking is wrecking your health or destroying someone you love, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MOST EXPENSIVE BUBBLY

LONDON (AP) — Three cases of champagne auctioned at the Sporting Club in London's Knightsbridge raised 300 guineas ($882) for Red Cross funds. It was nonvintage Lanson Black Label.

"That's 8 pounds 15 shillings ($22.40) a bottle, making it just about the most expensive bubbly in London," commented Capt. Mark Cogley, licensee of the Goat Tavern in Mayfair.

"The ordinary retail price of such a bottle is just over 30 shillings ($4.20). The buyers of the champagne insisted on anonymity."

Near Zero Cold Coming Tonight

The coldest night of the young winter is expected to blow into Escanaba and Michigan tonight on the heels of a Christmas weekend storm which left most of the state sliding on slippery highways.

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicted a low of zero tonight for the Escanaba area. Snow is considered "likely" by Wednesday afternoon.

Vietnam Rebels Will Be Shot

PLEIKU, South Viet Nam (UPI) —A military tribunal today ordered four leaders of a bloody Central Highlands rebellion 10 days ago to be executed by a firing squad in a public square.

The rebel leaders were among the 20 Montagnard (mountaineer) soldiers who were on trial today for their role in the uprising against Vietnamese troops which spread through four provinces in central Viet Nam.

Of the other 16 Montagnards, the tribunal sentenced one to life imprisonment, another to 10 years hard labor followed by 10 years exile, and 13 soldiers to years hard labor and 5 years banishment. One soldier was acquitted.

Another group of rebel soldiers goes on trial Tuesday, but none face the death penalty.

A military spokesman said the four condemned men would not be shot immediately. He said they have the right to ask for executive clemency although there is no appeal from the tribunal verdict.

Russians Hint They May Try Space Meeting

MOSCOW (UPI) — Moscow radio, saying Russia would not be ashamed to "imitate something good from the Americans," hinted Sunday the Soviet Union might try a Gemini-style rendezvous in space.

In a summary of Russia's 1965 space achievements, commentator Alexei Yermilov said the United States sent six experts to talk with Lt. Col. Alexei Leonov after the colonel last March became the first man to walk in space.

"This afforded the Americans the possibility of fulfilling a flight almost identical to Leonov's," he said.

"We will not be ashamed if in the future we in turn can imitate something good from the Americans," Yermilov said.

Humphrey Flies Off On Mission

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey embarks today on his first major, extended diplomatic mission abroad for President Johnson, with scheduled stops in four major Far East nations.

Humphrey leaves from Andrews Air Force Base, Md., for Manila, arriving Dec. 29, to attend the inauguration ceremony of President-elect Ferdinand Marcos of the Philippines.

His plane was scheduled to leave at 2 p.m. EST.

After the Manila stop, Humphrey was to pay Johnson's respects to the chiefs of state in Formosa, Korea and Japan. The vice president was expected to return to Washington for the start of Congress Jan. 10.

In announcing Humphrey's trip, the White House last week emphasized that the vice president would not visit South Viet Nam and that such a stop-over had never been contemplated, discussed or intended.

However, as part of his mission, Humphrey was expected to re-emphasize American policy in Viet Nam and U.S. objectives in the war and to reiterate U.S. willingness to seek an honorable peace in the conflict.

During a weekend radio interview, Humphrey said the United States was seeking peace despite Communist attempts to discredit the effort.

"Hanoi and Peking are suffering from an euphoria, that they feel they are going to win, no matter what," Humphrey said. "And they keep feeding this propaganda to their people and when we press for peace talks, it has a way of undermining their... designs and desire of conquest."

William Lenzi, Former Resident Dies In Evanston

William Lenzi of Libertyville, Ill., a former resident of Rock and Escanaba died at Evanston Hospital Saturday after suffering a heart attack.

He is survived by his wife, Rose, one son, Gerald in service; one daughter, Mrs. Marvin (Lee Ann) Brewall of Marquette; two sisters, Mrs. Garfield Skewes, Chicago and Mrs. Louis Nelson, Rock; one brother, Carl of Newberry and 6 grandchildren.

Friends may call from 3 to 9:30 p.m. Tuesday and parish prayers will be recited at 8 p.m. Funeral services will be held at St. Joseph's Church Wednesday at 9 a.m. with the Rev. Jordan Telles officiating. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Change

Due to the large number of advanced enrollments, the location of a public school finances seminar has been changed from the Michigan State University Extension Center to the Senior High School in Marquette. First meeting has been scheduled for 9:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Jan. 8. The two term hour graduate course was designed for persons working on advanced degrees in education, particularly the six-year specialist and PhD degrees.

Duke Ellington Plays In Church

NEW YORK (UPI) — The prim, grey haired lady with a Christmas corsage pinned on her mink sat upright in a center pew, her foot tapping, her head bobbing gently.

Upon the altar of the 157-year-old Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, his French blue suede shoes thumping time to rich piano chords, one of "God's gentlemen" conversed with the Lord.

Duke Ellington had a lot to say Sunday in his "concert of sacred music" and he said it the way he knew best—with his God-given gift for jazz.

The noted bandleader-composer spoke not in a smoke-hazed glass-clinking jazz bistro but beneath a massive gilded pipe organ under a pale green-and-gold canopied ceiling. More than 2,000 persons, including fur clad socialites and furchinned music lovers, crammed into the cushioned pews at each of two performances to listen.

The Rev. Bryant M. Kirkland, pastor of the church established shortly after the American Revolution, introduced Ellington as "one of God's gentlemen." He cited Psalm 150 from the scriptures. "Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him with the sound of the trumpet; praise him with the timbral and dance; praise him with stringed instruments and upon the cymbals and the high sounding cymbals..."

And Ellington said: "Every man prays in his own language, and there is no language that God does not understand."

The concert, the first jazz program in a major New York City church, spoke with a sometimes brassy, sometimes soulful sincerity that filled the 90-year-old sanctuary with soft to loud jazz, rousing spirituals and applause. It was Ellington's way of saying, "Glory to God in the highest."

Walled Lake Casino Burns

WALLED LAKE (UPI) — The famed Walled Lake Casino in Oakland County northwest of Detroit was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning.

There were no injuries.

Firemen fought the blaze for a time with tanked water. There are no fire hydrants in the vicinity of the casino.

When it became apparent the fire would destroy the casino, firefighting efforts were halted to conserve the tanked water and firemen worked only to contain the fire and prevent it from spreading to nearby buildings.

The firemen were called to the scene early in the morning and were at the scene of the smoldering debris until mid-afternoon.

Authorities said there was a dance at the casino Christmas night but the doors of the building were reported closed at 11:30 p.m.

The casino was the scene of numerous big band dances and concerts in the 1930s and 1940s.

There was no estimate of the dollar value of the damage suffered in the fire. Authorities were investigating the cause of the fire.

Lull Continues In Air Attacks

SAIGON (UPI) — A Viet Cong terrorist posing as a recruit exploded a bomb today in a barracks filled with Vietnamese Army trainees, causing heavy loss of life. A second bomb designed to kill rescue crews ever failed to go off.

A 2 1/2-ton truck carrying troops of the U.S. Army's 1st Infantry Division later today struck a mine in Bing Duong Province, about 30 miles north of Saigon. Details were sketchy but a U.S. military spokesman said "heavy" casualties were feared.

The barracks blast occurred at the headquarters of the government's 9th Infantry Division in Sadee, about 70 miles southwest of Saigon in the Communist-dominated Mekong Delta.

Military security prevented the release of specific casualty figures among the undisclosed number of recruits caught in the explosion as they slept. There were no reports of casualties among U.S. Army advisers in a nearby compound at Sadee.

A Christmas pause in the air war against Communist North Viet Nam continued today. There has been no reported air activity over the North since Christmas Eve, when U.S. and South Vietnamese forces began observing the 30-hour Yuletide ceasefire.

U.S. spokesmen declined comment on the lull or when or whether attacks against the Hanoi regime would be renewed.

Both bombs planted in the Sadee barracks were of the Claymore mine variety. The first exploded about 50 pounds of high explosive and the second was set to send thousands of lethal steel pellets ripping into survivors and rescuers assisting the wounded.

A Vietnamese government spokesman said the terrorist managed to flee before the bomb went off.

Progressive Farm Management Tied To Fertilizer

Fertilizer usage in Michigan has increased considerably over the past nine years. Total tonnage used has increased by 23 per cent in the period from 1955 to 1964, according to Dr. Donald L. Thurlow of Marquette, Michigan State University soil specialist. However, this does not tell the total story, as in 1955 some 41 per cent of the total fertilizer sold contained less than 30 units of plant food (nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium) per 100 pounds. This same grade of fertilizer only made up four per cent of the 1964 sales.

The total increased usage of plant food used by Michigan farmers can best be seen by looking at the usage on a nutrient basis. The usage of nitrogen and potassium was increased by 105 and 34 per cent respectively, however, phosphorus usage decreased by seven per cent over this nine year period. The usage of fertilizer in the Upper Peninsula dropped three and eight tenths per cent during the 1955-1959 period.

If farmers have not increased their fertilizer usage by something similar to the figures cited they may be losing production, says Thurlow. He advises farmers to drop into the office of the Delta County Agricultural Agent J. L. Heirman and ask for information on how to get soil tested and a recommendation for what kind of fertilizer would best fit their farming needs.

Mrs. Mathison Dies Downstate

Funeral services are to be held in Clanton, Ala., on Tuesday for Mrs. Allan Mathison, 48, who died Dec. 23 in Wayne, Mich.

She was the wife of Allan Mathison, former teacher of mathematics at Escanaba Area High School. The family left Escanaba about 7 years ago when Mathison was named superintendent of the Cherry Hills Public Schools at Wayne.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Mathison is survived by her husband and a daughter, Susan, who is wed, and a son, Peter, a high school junior. Mathison is a son of Mrs. Esther Mathison, 505 Dakota Ave., Gladstone.

Foiled Again!

WARREN, Pa. (UPI)—The Richard Kay family experienced culinary disasters on Thanksgiving and Christmas. Perhaps the New Year's dinner will be a success.

The Kays planned turkey for Thanksgiving, but the fowl burned to a crisp in the oven.

On Christmas, the Kays looked forward to baked ham. So did the family dog, which got to the meat first.

Gnat Straining

CORONA, Calif. (UPI)—City Building Inspector William Whitaker today began a crackdown on homeowners who build trechouses and doll houses for their children.

"A doll house is an accessory building," Whitaker explained, "and if it cost $20 or more to build, including labor and materials, it needs a permit" under the city's building code.

Snomobiles Add Zest To Winter Travel Fun

Combine the flexibility of dog-sledding, the excitement of tobogganing and you have the recipe for a new winter sport that has opened the way to more family fun activities in the snow.

The rapid growth of snowmobiling during the past several years can probably be traced to its appeal to all age levels and the fact that snowmobiles can go just about anywhere that there is snow.

The snowmobile can most easily be described as a motorized toboggan. The hull is generally constructed of fiberglass and is open-sided. The front end rests on two skis which are steered by means of a handlebar from inside the hull. Below the hull is a cleated, endless belt which provides traction and is powered by a small motor. Cushioned seats generally provide room for the driver and a passenger behind him.

The snowmobile is unique in that it can go anywhere there is snow or ice. Fields, frozen lakes and wooded paths offer no barrier to the "snowbird," as long as the terrain is reasonably even.

The power plants in snowmobiles range from six to 20 horsepower with the average vehicle carrying a 14 horsepower, two-cycle engine. Depending on conditions, speeds of 30 to 35 miles per hour are generated for short distances. For longer distances of perhaps 100 miles or more, however, sustained speeds at this rate are difficult to maintain and the operator should plan to average 20 mph on such a trip.

Wherever snowmobiles congregate there you will find competitive events. Much of the speed and maneuverability of the vehicle depends not only on horsepower but on the manner in which it is handled by the driver. Driving skill is an important factor in racing and rallies.

Several such events have been scheduled in Michigan during the winter months. Included in the Michigan Calendar of Events listings is the Snowmobile Derby at Ishpeming, Jan. 7-8; the Snow Safari, Jan. 8 at Harbor Springs and the National Snowmobile Rally at East Jordan, Feb. 12-13. It is expected that several of the winter carnivals held throughout the state will also be scheduling snowmobile events.

In addition to competition, the sport also offers the opportunity for group snow-cruising. Like many other activities, the sport provides the incentive to form common interest clubs. Members of such organizations may routes through woods, fields and across frozen lakes for trips which offer scenic adventure not found in other methods of transportation. Experts advise the snowmobilers not to attempt long trips in unfamiliar territory alone.

Hunters and ice fishermen put the snowmobile to practical use. A toboggan hitched to the snowmobile provides an efficient carryall for equipment. The vehicle opens new areas to the sportsman, providing access to remote lakes and wilderness not easy to reach during the winter.

The cost of a snowmobile depends mainly on the type of vehicle. Prices start at $800 and range up to $1,500 for models with deluxe equipment. Most manufacturers, however, offer their vehicles at an average cost of from $800 to $900.

For information on other Michigan winter sports, the 1965-66 Winter Sports Map is available without charge from the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing, 48926.

Auto Industry Slows Output

DETROIT (UPI) — The auto industry is gearing for slightly lower production for the first three months of 1966 with slightly over 2.3 million cars scheduled compared with the 2.6 million produced in the first quarter of 1965.

Officials have pointed out that 1965's high production was due to a strike late in '64.

The present three month high of about 2.6 million cars is being set this quarter.

With every auto made setting a new record at this point, the industry planned to assemble slightly over 150,000 cars this week.

In the same week a year ago, the industry turned out 121,000. Of this week's total, General Motors will build 85,000 cars during a four-day week, Ford will assemble 33,000 in three days. Chrysler planned to turn out about 27,000 in four days and American Motors was slated for 5,400 in three days.

American Motors had previously announced it planned to shut down operations until Jan. 17 following this week's production.

Chevrolet, which was hampered by a 28-day strike at its No. 2 Kisher Body plant at Flint, called 3,100 workers back Wednesday after a settlement was reached early Wednesday morning.

Programs for the first three months of next year break down into 794,000 in January, 764,000 in February and 825,000 in March, when the tempo normally quickens for the spring buying period.

Steel Industry Leader Dies

DETROIT (UPI) — Paul H. Carnahan, who worked his way up to the head of the National Steel Corp., died at his home in suburban Grosse Ile Sunday after a heart attack.

Carnahan, 61, became chairman of the board and chief executive officer of National Steel in November, 1964 after 31 years with the Pittsburgh-based firm.

A native of Racine, Ohio, Carnahan went to work with National's subsidiary, Great Lakes Steel, in Grosse Ile, in 1933 as an hourly-rated employee. He was given a supervisory job in 1937 and was named a vice president of Great Lakes in 1953.

After being named president of Great Lakes in 1954 and chairman of the board in 1958, he became president of National Steel in 1961 and finally chairman of the board three years later.

Carnahan, active in many national and local organizations, is survived by his widow and daughter.

Funeral services will be in Detroit.

Safety Writers

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ned Hudson, aviation writer of the New York Times, is the 1965 winner of the Sherman Fairchild International Safety Writing Award.

Hudson, who will receive $1,000 as part of the award, was honored for his "outstanding and remarkable coverage-in-depth" of new developments concerning air safety in all fields of flying.

TURN ABOUT
ODJACI, Yugoslavia (AP) — Some 25 years ago Radivoje Djordjevic took his young son to school for the first time, calming the little boy's fears.

Now the 53-year-old Radivoje has gone back to school himself to take tests for a high school diploma he never received as a youth.

The father's nervousness was calmed by his son, now the examining professor at the school.

Not a nice thing to think about but you could be doing just that if you don't have a regular savings program. Paychecks have a way of disappearing into thin air. And your best intentions to save often get postponed until the "next time around."

But there is an easy and sure way to save called the Payroll Savings Plan. And it works automatically.

You just ask your employer to set aside a small amount from your check each payday to be put toward the purchase of a U. S. Savings Bond.

For example, just $4.33 a week adds up to the $18.75 you need to buy a $25 Bond every month. More than likely you'll forget you even set it aside (a pretty painless way to feather your nest).

This way, those few dollars you never see now will be keeping Junior in tuition and textbooks later. What's more, they'll be working for Uncle Sam to keep the world strong and free for his generation.

So why don't you point your willpower in the right direction! Join the Payroll Savings Plan, and see how you, too, can be a reformed fritterer.

Roquefort Turnovers Special

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

One of the most delicious hors d'oeuvre we have tried recently is in turnover form.

Pie crust mix is used for the pastry, and the filling is a luscious combination of Roquefort cheese, butter, eggs and a suspicion of scallion.

This recipe makes a lot of turnovers. You'll find them great to serve for an afternoon or evening refresher. If any are leftover, store them in a tightly covered container in your refrigerator and reheat them; they'll add a delectable touch to a maincourse salad lunch or supper.

Roquefort Turnovers
1/2 pound Roquefort cheese
2 tablespoons minced scallions
1/4 pound butter, soft
2 eggs
Heavy cream
2 packages (each 10 ounces) pie crust mix
Mash Roquefort; stir in scallions and butter. Beat eggs until they are thickened and lemon colored; add half of these beaten eggs to the Roquefort mixture; beat until thoroughly blended. Beat in enough cream, a little at a time, to make a thick paste that holds its shape. Reserve the remaining eggs.

Prepare pie crust mix according to package directions. With a prepared pastry cloth and a stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll out pastry so that it is about 21 by 13 inches; with a rule, square sides so that you have a 20 by 12 1/2-inch rectangle. (Pat leavings from edges of dough into a ball; cover and refrigerate.) With a pastry wheel or sharp knife, cut the pastry rectangle into 2 1/2-inch squares — there will be 40. Brush the edges of each square with some of the reserved beaten egg. (Use refrigerated scraps of dough with any leftover filling.)

Put 1 teaspoon of the Roquefort mixture near the center of each pastry square; fold over each square to form a triangle. Place on lightly greased cookie sheets. Brush tops with the remaining beaten egg and prick with a fork. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven for 12 to 15 minutes or until lightly browned. With a wide spatula, remove to a wire rack. Serve warm or reheat.

WONDERFUL SNACK—Pastry turnovers have a filling of Roquefort cheese, with a suspicion of scallion, and they are delightful party fare.

Cooking Is Fun

THE BRIDE COOKS LUNCH
Fluffy Scrambled Eggs
Pan-fried Ham
Hash Brown Potatoes
Fruit Compote Coffee Cake
FLUFFY SCRAMBLED EGGS
4 large eggs
1/4 cup commercial sour cream
1/4 teaspoon (scant) salt
1 1/2 tablespoons butter

In a mixing bowl, beat the eggs just until yolks and whites are combined; add the sour cream and salt; beat to combine. Over moderate heat, melt the butter in an 8-inch skillet. Add the egg mixture; as it sets, with a wide spatula, scrape it toward the center, tilting pan to let uncooked portion of egg mixture run toward edges. Repeat this process until eggs are set but not overly firm; toward the end of the cooking, finish them off heat. Makes 2 servings.

On Ski Holiday

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (UPI)—Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy and her children, Caroline and John Jr., arrived at Sun Valley Sunday for a skiing holiday with other members of the Kennedy family.

Mrs. Kennedy and her children will stay at the cottage rented by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.

If you like to grease the sides (as well as the bottom) of cake or muffin pans, do so sparingly. The bottom of the pans can, of course, be well greased.

COLOR TESTS

HARVARD, Ill. (AP)—Know how you adjust a color television set if you are color blind? The answer at Admiral Corporation's color television manufacturing plant here is, you don't.

Periodic eye tests are given to all employed in the making of color television sets to unearthen those whose visual defects could effect the quality of the receivers.

While no one has yet been found color blind, several people have been found to have a color deficiency, and transferred to other departments.

Ann Ford Weds Broker Tuesday

NEW YORK (UPI) — Anne Ford, youngest daughter of auto magnate Henry Ford II, will be married Tuesday to Italian stockbroker Giancarlo Uzielli in the third Ford family marriage of the year.

Although some of the pomp was taken out of Tuesday's wedding by the surprise marriage of Charlotte Ford 11 days ago, the marriage still is expected to be a high point on the social scene.

Charlotte, 24, stole the headlines Dec. 16 when she eloped with Greek shipping tycoon Stavros Spyros Niarchos, 56, in Juarez, Mexico.

Some observers believed Charlotte got married because she didn't want her younger sister to beat her to the altar.

Charlotte was to have been maid of honor at her younger sister's wedding.

Tuesday's wedding will be held in the Fifth Avenue apartment of Mrs. Anne McDonnell Ford.

A huge ball attended by about 500 persons was scheduled for tonight at a New York hotel. The ball was being given by Anne's mother and her former husband, Henry Ford II.

The Ford's first startled society more than a year ago when they announced their separation and later were divorced.

Ford then married an attractive Italian divorcee, Maria Christina Vettore Austin, Feb. 9 in a surprise Washington wedding.

Both the Ford girls have been named among the best dressed women by fashion experts.

Charlotte and her twice-divorced husband were not expected to attend Anne's wedding.

When you bake cupcakes, fill the pans no more than two-thirds full. If the pans are too full, the batter will spread out over the top of the pan and the cakes will be difficult to remove and unattractive.

Homemaking Tips

Like garlic flavor? Before you roast a leg of lamb, cut slits in the meat and insert slivers of garlic.

Next time you are making meat balls from ground lamb, you might like to achieve new flavor by adding a little mint. If the fresh variety isn't on hand, use dried mint — about a teaspoon of the latter to a pound of the ground meat mixed with a cup of fine dry breadcrumbs and a couple of eggs.

Ruth Anderson Bride Of Robert C. South

Central Methodist Church was the setting Christmas night, Dec. 25 for the candlelight wedding of Ruth Elaine Anderson, 2604 Hawk Lane, Rolling Meadows, Ill., and Robert Clifford South, 2626 Chelsea Ave., Orlando, Fla. The Rev. Robert Selberg officiated at the 7 p.m. double ring ceremony. Organist for the wedding was Mrs. Hjalmer Anderson, aunt of the bride from Menominee.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Thomas F. Anderson, 1610 10th Ave. N. and the late Thomas F. Anderson. Mr. South is the son of Mrs. Earl Aiken of Cornell and the late Clifford South. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, David A. Anderson of Escanaba.

Peau De Soie

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor length gown of peau de soie with a bodice of French embroidered lace. The gown featured an empire waist. A-line skirt and three quarter length sleeves. A detachable floor length train flowed from the shoulders. She wore a fingertip veil. Her cascading bouquet was composed of varying shades of red and white carnations, roses and feathered mums.

Maid of honor was Carol Adams of Chicago and she was attired in a floor length gown of cranberry velvet and white brocade. It featured an empire waist. A-line skirt and three quarter length sleeves. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white roses, carnations and feathered mums.

Big O Proves Clutch Player

By United Press International
Oscar Robertson proved his reputation as a clutch basketball player Sunday by scoring Cincinnati's final six points to give the Royals a 117-115 victory over St. Louis.

Robertson, who netted 37 points, tied the game at 111-111, put the Royals ahead by two, deadlocked the game at 115-115 and finally won it by sinking a jumper at the buzzer.

In other National Basketball Association action, Wilt Chamberlain blocked 16 shots and scored 33 points to lead the Philadelphia 76ers to a 121-107 triumph over the San Francisco Warriors, and Sam Jones netted 34 points, 10 in the final quarter, to power the Eastern Division leading Boston Celtics to a 120-99 victory over Baltimore.

Packers Win Overtime Thriller For Western Division Pennant

Sudden-Death Period Ended By Field Goal

By ED SAINSBURY

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—Place kicking specialist Don Chandler, once frustrated in a pro football overtime, wiped out every unpleasant memory and scored personal revenge with one spectacular boot Sunday.

It was a 25-yard field goal, after 13 minutes and 29 seconds of tension-packed overtime football, and it gave the Green Bay Packers a 13-10 triumph over the Baltimore Colts for the National Football League's Western Division championship.

Equally important, the decision advanced the Packers into the league title game next Sunday against the Eastern Division Cleveland Browns, on the same field where the Packers came from behind and wiped out a 10-point Colts' lead to revive 50,484 chilled and shaken hometown fans.

Chandler was the deciding factor in this too, since he kicked a 22-yard field goal with only one minute and 58 seconds to play to tie the score and send the game into its sudden death overtime.

Longest NFL Game

It resulted in the longest game ever in pro football, only the second overtime in league history. Chandler was involved in the other too, in 1958 when the same Colts defeated Chandler's New York Giants 23-17 for the NFL crown after 8 minutes 15 seconds of overtime in Yankee Stadium.

"I prefer not to think about that game," Chandler said.

Chandler's kicks were almost the only bright spot of the day for the Packers' inept, stumbling and fumbling before the crippled Colts in the 32 degree temperature.

Playing without quarterback Bart Starr, Green Bay had its chances to wrap up the win long before the regulation 60 minutes had passed and couldn't cash in.

The determined Colts, with a desperation choice at quarterback, Tom Matte, let no opportunities go by. On the first play from scrimmage, Starr passed to Bill Anderson, who fumbled.

Don Shinnick picked up the loose ball and scampered 25 yards for a touchdown. Lou Michaels converted, and in the second period he kicked a 15-yard field goal to give the Colts a 10-0 lead, after their only genuine march of the day.

Matte was the key cog in this march. A college quarterback, he hadn't played the position for five years until last week when injuries to Johnny Unitas and Gary Cuozzo forced the Colts to put him on the spot with the responsibility.

Running Threat

He had the same assignment against the Packers, and his running bugged the Green Bay defense. He ran 17 times for 57 yards and twice he ran delayed plays himself inside the Colts' 10-yard line, succeeding each time to get out of trouble.

The Packers took their share of the injuries too. Starr suffered bruised ribs on the first scrimmage play and was in the game thereafter only to hold the ball on Chandler's placekicks.

This put the load on substitute signal caller Zeke Bratkowski, and the Packers could have no regrets. Bratkowski completed 22 of 39 passes for 248 yards, and he was most dangerous on key third down plays. On the march toward Chandler's game-winning field goal, he twice hit for 18 yards, to Bill Anderson and Carroll Dale, and a 33-yard toss to Dale earlier carried to the Colts' one to set up Paul Hornung's plunge for Green Bay's only touchdown.

Green Bay and Baltimore tied for the Western Division lead at 10-3-1 at the end of the regular season, and the Packers triumph for the title came in the ninth playoff in league history, and the fifth in the Western Division.

It was Green Bay's third win this year over Baltimore, and it may have been costly. Starr was a doubtful participant for next Sunday's title clash and so was Hornung, reporting bruised ribs, a sore wrist and a twisted knee.

Sport Shorties

STOCKHOLM (UPI)—The International Bowling Federation has designated Spain the host country for the 1967 world bowling championships.

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Walt Bellamy of the Baltimore Bullets in the NBA is a trainee in the selling of securities and mutual funds.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—Christmas — a green one — came one day late for the Green Bay Packers Sunday, all because Zeke Bratkowski preferred not to make mistakes.

"We just tried not to beat ourselves," said the journeyman quarterback, who for the second time this year was pressed into action in a crucial game against the Baltimore Colts, and who for the second time became a hero.

"We just didn't want to make a mistake that would give them a short field goal. So we stuck to the basics," Bratkowski said.

The basics — straight ahead plays and simple pass patterns — set up Don Chandler's 25-yard field goal after 13 minutes and 29 seconds of sudden death overtime and propelled Green Bay into next Sunday's national football league showdown against the Cleveland Browns.

Prep Cagers Begin Action In Tourneys

Two Upper Peninsula high school basketball tournaments swing into action tonight with 16 teams playing at Eben and Kingsford.

The holiday tournament at Eben will run tonight, Tuesday and Thursday. The Big Seven tourney at Kingsford will run three straight nights, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Here's the first round lineup for the Eben tourney, with won-lost records of the competing teams:

5 - Cocks (4-2) vs. National Mine (1-4)

6:30 - Rock (2-4) vs. Republic (3-4)

8 - Garden (3-2) vs. Eben (5-2)

9:30 - Marquette Baraga (5-1) vs. Perkins (1-5)

Tonight's schedule at the Kingsford Armory:

5 - Hermansville (5-1) vs. Felch (2-4)

6:30 - Carney (3-2) vs. Channing (6-0)

8 - Alpha (1-3) vs. Amasa (1-3)

9:30 - Powers (4-2) vs. Champion (5-1)

Alex Is Back, Red Wings Win

By United Press International
Alex Delvecchio has moved the Detroit Red Wings back into the thick of the National Hockey League race.

Delvecchio scored with 56 seconds left Sunday night to give the Red Wings a 1-0 victory over the league-leading Montreal Canadiens. The triumph moved Detroit into third place, only six points off the pace. A loss would have set the Red Wings back eight points and kept them in fourth place.

Chico Maki scored at 11:15 of the final period to give the Chicago Black Hawks a 1-1 tie with the Toronto Maple Leafs, who dropped to fourth place, one point behind Detroit. Red Kelly scored his second goal of the season for the Leafs, who are unbeaten in nine consecutive games.

Bob Nevin scored a three-goal hat trick and added two assists as the New York Rangers blasted the last-place Boston Bruins 6-4. Donnie Marshall tallied once and picked up four assists for the Rangers.

Proved Their Point

"We had to prove last year was no fluke," Buffalo quarter-

South Gridders Beat North In Alabama, Miami

By United Press International
The Southerners staged last-period uprisings Saturday to win the Blue-Gray classic at Montgomery, Ala., 23-19 and the North-South Shrine game at Miami 21-14, but the top football bowl action is on tap this week.

Bill Clay of Mississippi ran an intercepted pass back 39 yards for a touchdown in the North-South game to give the Southerners a victory at Miami.

Only moments earlier, a trio of West Virginia stars had helped the South gain a 14-14 tie by accounting for eight points.

Johnson dived for his touchdown, passed to South Carolina's J.R. Wilburn for a two-point conversion and hit Baylor's Harlan Lane with a 10-yard scoring pass during a 15-point outburst in the fourth period.

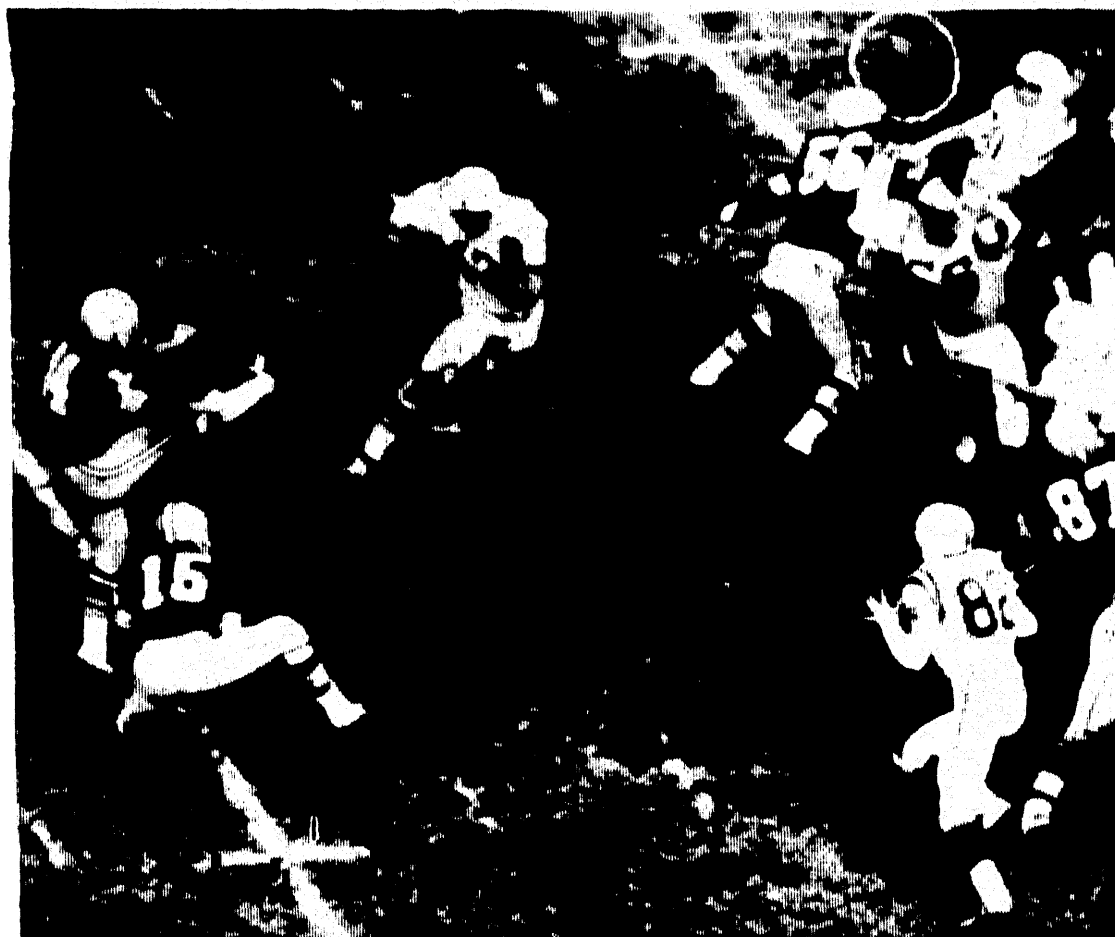

Georgia Tech and Texas Tech meet this Friday in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., Texas Western and Texas Christian play in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., and the East-West Shrine game is scheduled for San Francisco.

The traditional big four will be played on New Year's Day. Michigan State and UCLA are in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., Arkansas and Louisiana State are in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, Nebraska and Alabama are in the Orange Bowl at Miami and Florida and Missouri are in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans.

BIGGEST MARGIN

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mildred (Babe) Didrikson Zaharias won the 1954 U. S. Women's Open golf championship by 12 strokes. This is a USGA record for the largest winning margin in a stroke play tournament.

"I'm happy," Lombardi growled. "There's nothing else to say. I have a great deal of admiration for everyone on the Colts team. Without the horses, without a quarterback, they did a great job."

BALL KICKED by Don Chandler (34) of Green Bay Packers rises toward uprights and three-point field goal against the Baltimore Colts to provide a 13-10 victory in the Western Conference playoff game at Green Bay Sunday. ## No Doubt This Time As Bills Win Crown

By RAYMOND MEANS

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Everybody said the Buffalo Bills' 1964 victory over the San Diego Chargers for the American Football League title was "fluke," but they don't have much to say about this year's game.

The Bills just overpowered their rivals this time and left no doubt in anybody's mind.

Planker Lance Alworth was missing last year, and fullback Keith Lincoln went out in the first quarter of the 20-7 Buffalo win. Well, Alworth was around Sunday and Lincoln, though slightly hobbled, played too, but San Diego scored even less.

Lou Saban's Bills shut them out, 23-0, as they captured their second straight AFL title. The San Diego loss was the fourth for Sid Gillman in five AFL title games.

Proved Their Point
"We had to prove last year was no fluke," Buffalo quarterback Jack Kemp said after the game. Sunday was the culmination of our play all season. We scratched and clawed for almost every game."

Kemp was voted Most Valuable Player in the game for his direction of the Buffalo attack.

Sunday the Bills didn't claw; they struck quickly for two touchdowns in the second quarter and then relied on defense and Pete Gogolak's three field goals in the second half for the championship. It was worth $5,189.92 for each Buffalo player, while the Chargers picked up $3,447.85 each.

Buffalo jammed up the Chargers running plays so effectively that all-time AFL rushing champ Paul Lowe netted just two yards rushing in the second half. In the first half he broke away for 61 yards, but most came on a 47-yard first quarter run.

The winning Bills outgained San Diego, 260-229, and held the brilliant Alworth to four catches.

Everyone Covered
"I would have thrown to Lance if I could have," Charger quarterback John Hadl said, "but they were double teaming him most of the day. I tried to get to the other receivers, but it just didn't work."

"We couldn't get going and they played like champs," Alworth said. "One guy was always knocking me off the line."

Buffalo's Saban praised his team's line play. "We whipped them in the trenches as we knew it had to be."

San Diego threatened to score first, but Herb Travenio's 35-yard field goal attempt was partially blocked early in the second period. After that the Chargers penetrated once to the Buffalo 25, but no further.

Finally Buffalo cracked the scoring column midway through the period as Kemp sent the Bills 60 yards in six plays. He used Ray Carlton for a couple of good gains in draws and then fired a 22-yard pass to tight end Paul Costa, who caught the ball falling out of bounds, which put the ball on the Charger 22.

Team Coordination
Three plays later Kemp fired an 18-yard pass right down the middle to Ernie Warlick for the touchdown. Costa and Warlick both were utilized as tight ends for better blocking.

Carlton picked up 63 yards to lead Buffalo rushers.

Minutes later Butch Byrd took a Hadl punt on his own 36 and getting two good blocks raced 74 yards down the sideline to score and make it 14-0. It was the longest punt return in AFL playoff history and the first one brought back for a score against San Diego this season.

In the second half Gogolak kicked field goals of 11, 39 and 32 yards as Buffalo continued to dominate play.

In passing Kemp hit 8 of 19 for 155 yards, while Hadl threw for 11 completions in 23 attempts. He lost 45 trying to pass.

Top Cage Teams Get Chance To Erase Tarnish

By United Press International

After losing eight of 14 encounters last week, the top 10 college basketball teams have chance to regain their tarnished prestige this week as holiday tournaments swing into high gear.

Three of the top five quintets were whipped last week with only No. 1 ranked Duke and third-ranked Vanderbilt escaping unscathed. The Blue Devils won an overtime contest against fifth-ranked Michigan, which also was beaten by Butler.

The Commodores blasted Santa Barbara and Northwestern while second-ranked St. Joseph's was another double loser, falling to Brigham Young (No. 8) and Wyoming. Fourth-rated Minnesota split a pair, losing to Utah State and whipping Detroit.

To round out the top 10, in order, Providence lost to Houston, Wichita fell to Southern Illinois and Marquette, Brigham Young whipped the Hawks, Kentucky belted Texas Tech and Iowa was idle.

The Quaker City classic in Philadelphia gives St. Joe's and Minnesota an opportunity to repair their images while Brigham Young, another entrant, can boost its prestige with a tourney crown. The Hawks face Niagara in a first round contest.

The Far West Classic in Portland may enable Michigan to bounce out of its current two-game losing streak. The Wolverines oppose Arizona State in a first round encounter and are favored to capture the crown after getting by the dangerous San Devils.

UCLA, picked No. 1 in the UPI pre-season poll but currently suffering a 4-3 season, hosts the Los Angeles Classic.

The Bruins find themselves in tough company with a pair of unbeaten, Vandy and Syracuse, which play each other Tuesday. The Bruins tangle with Louisiana State in an opening-round game.

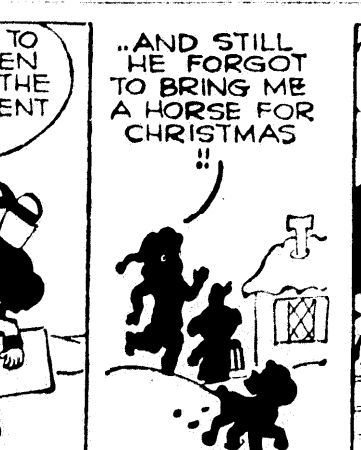

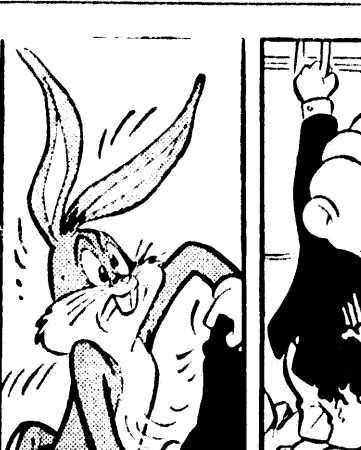

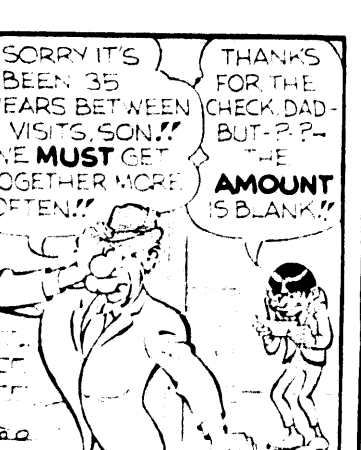

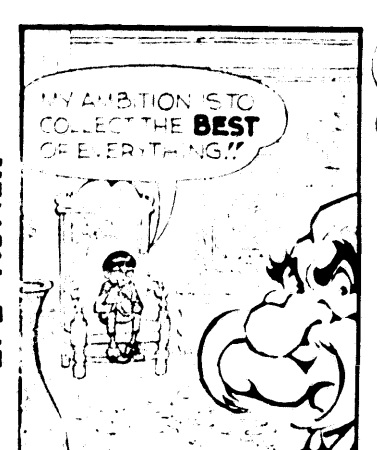

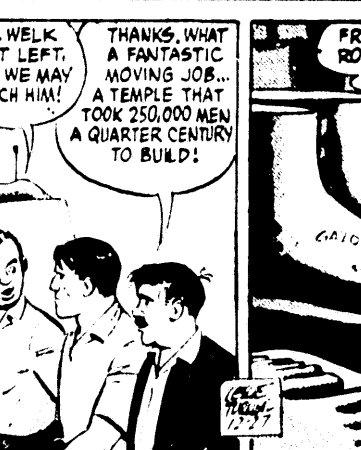

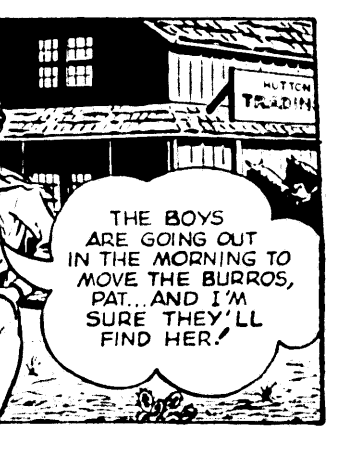

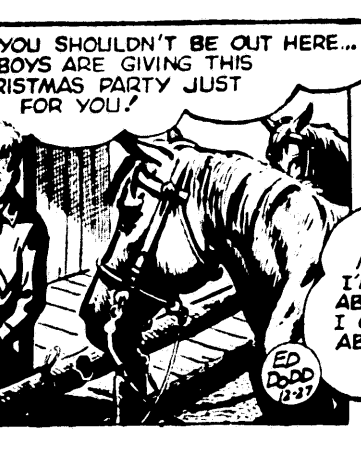

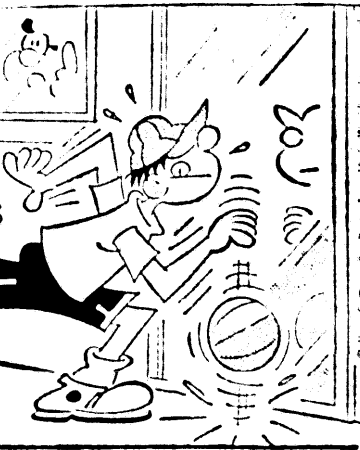

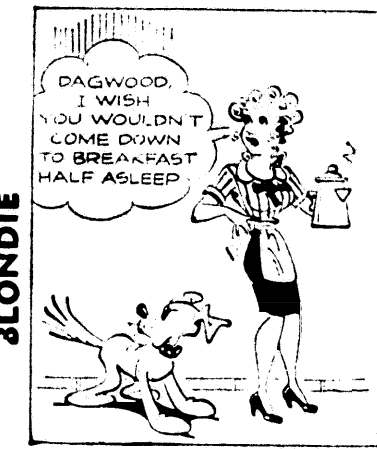

Providence clashes with NYU in the first round of the ECAC Holiday Festival in New York. The tournament boasts four of the nation's top 10 scorers among the eight teams entered.

The Blue Devils aren't in a holiday tourney this season but nevertheless will duke, conqueror of UCLA (twice) and Michigan, faces Notre Dame Friday and Wake Forest Saturday.

Schram Family Holds Reunion

Fifty members of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schram were gathered together for a holiday reunion Sunday afternoon and evening at the Mead Rod & Gun Club lodge. All ten children, six sons and four daughters attended with their families to celebrate the occasion. A 5 o'clock smorgasbord supper was served. Those from out-of-town were: Mr. and J. W. Norby and daughter Kris of Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gortitz of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schram and daughter Mary of Fond du Lac, David Schram, Chanute Field, Dan Schram of Houghton Tech, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gregoire, Green Bay, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Lacroix, Texas.

Services Held For Grenfell Infant

Funeral services for James Scott Grenfell, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Grenfell, 1728 Lake Shore Dr., were held at the Skradski Funeral Home chapel at 1 p.m. Friday with the Rt. Rev. Matt LaViolette officiating. Burial was in Fernwood Cemetery. The baby died shortly after birth Thursday. Maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Roberts, and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Grenfell, all of Gladstone, also survive.

City Commission To Consider New Aid Application

The Gladstone City Commission is expected to authorize an application for federal aid under the Economic Development Act of 1965 to make needed improvements at the industrial park at its regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. today. The application is one of two items on the agenda prepared by City Manager H. J. Henriksen.

Improvements at the industrial park, including higher water pressure, sewers and access roads and streets, are currently under study by Williams & Works, engineers, Grand Rapids. The Commission is seeking federal funds to implement work suggested by the engineering firm.

President Named Newsmaker Of 1965

By MARY CAMPBELL
AP Newsfeatures Writer

President Lyndon B. Johnson — keeping his finger on the pulse of a war and writing prescriptions for it, getting the most legislation passed the fastest since the New Deal, turning up often on TV and undergoing an operation — has been chosen Newsmaker of the Year for 1965.

Johnson was chosen by editors of Associated Press member newspapers and radio and television stations.

He was inaugurated President Jan. 20 with his hand on a family Bible held by his wife and launched his program which he named the Great Society — designed to create a better quality of life for Americans. As the Great Society bills passed Congress, the President dramatized their signing.

He was in the first school he ever attended to sign the Aid to Education bill; at his alma mater, Southwest Texas State College, to sign the Higher Education Bill; at the base of the Statue of Liberty for the Immigration Bill. He signed the Health Research Bill at the National Institutes of Health in Maryland, Medicare in Harry Truman's library in Independence, Mo., and the Voting Rights Bill in the Capitol on an Abraham Lincoln desk.

He appointed — keeping it secret until speculation was high — Arthur Goldberg as UN ambassador, Henry Cabot Lodge, ambassador to South Vietnam; Thurgood Marshall, solicitor general; John Gardner, secretary of Health, Education and Welfare; Abe Fortas to the Supreme Court, and set up task forces and conferences to study everything from water to crime.

THE BEATLES

The President talked union leaders out of a railway strike, sent steel negotiators his own proposed settlement and announced the end of the 75-day Gulf-East Coast shipping strike. He pressured industry to roll back aluminum and copper price increases but lost a round to the Federal Reserve Board when it raised its interest rates. He entered the hospital twice — for "executive flu" soon after the inauguration and to have his gall bladder removed Oct. 8.

He borrowed money to pay his income taxes, dedicated the first park in his home town of Johnson City, Tex., on his 57th birthday and gave a White House party for Britain's Princess Margaret and Lord Snowden on his 31st wedding anniversary.

LBJ also was selected by the AP editors as newsmaker of the year in foreign affairs. He sent U. S. troops to the Dominican Republic; said the U. S. would "contribute anything we can" to solve the Indonesian-Malaysia dispute and supported U. N. efforts for a Pakistan-India ceasefire; announced the U. S. and Panama had agreed to write a new treaty on the canal and criticized Rhodesia's declaration of independence from Britain.

But much of his news was made — and much of his time spent — on the fighting in Vietnam. Johnson kept day-to-day accounts of attacks and casualties and made many of the strike decisions.

He sent Marines to protect the Da Nang Air Base March 8, said on April 7 the U. S. was willing to enter Viet Nam peace talks (disclosure was made in November that at least one approach for talks was rejected as lacking in sincerity), asked Congress for and got $700 million to run the war in May and another $1.7 million in August, on Nov. 11 called for more troops to augment the 160,000 there.

Other newsmakers selected in The Associated Press poll were: Air Force Lt. Col. Edward White II, science; Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, labor; Pope Paul VI, religion; Sandy Koufax, sports; the Beatles, entertainment; Mikhail Sholokhov, literature; Lady Bird Johnson, woman newsmaker.

Astronaut White left James A. McDivitt in space ship Gemini 4 on June 3 to spend 21 minutes walking in space. White was the second man and first American to do so.

Frederic C. Donner, chairman of the board of General Motors since 1958, led GM to its biggest production and sales year in history, setting an earnings and profits record for American industry. Donner, a financial wizard who joined GM in 1926 as an accountant, also sparked a $2.6 billion program of plant expansion for 1965 and '66, himself earned $800,000.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen foiled labor's No. 1 goal for the 1965 Congress: repeal of Section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act. This is the section which permits states (19 have done so) to make it illegal to require union membership. Dirksen promised "extended discussion" and started a filibuster Oct. 4. The bill was shelved Oct. 12.

POPE PAUL VI

Pope Paul VI Jan. 25 appointed 27 cardinals, the first of his 20-month reign, to make a record high of 103 cardinals from a record 47 nations. He spoke in English from Rome on American television May 3 via the Early Bird satellite, and on Oct. 4 he made the first visit by a reigning Pope to the United States. When the final session of the Ecumenical Council came in December, he had promulgated 16 church documents approved during the four annual Council sessions.

The Los Angeles Dodgers were hurled to World Series victory over the Minnesota Twins on the fastballing left arm of pitcher Sanford (Sandy) Koufax. In the Series, Koufax won the fifth and seventh games and fanned 29 in 24 innings. During the season, he pitched a perfect no-hitter Sept. 9 against the Chicago Cubs, becoming the first Major League pitcher to throw four no-hit games, broke Bob Feller's Major League season strikeout record of 348 by fanning 382, and won 26 and lost 8.

The entertainment newsmakers, the Beatles, were honored as members of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire by Queen Elizabeth, and several indignant MBEs mailed their medals back. A June tour of Europe played to less than full houses by an August tour of 10 American cities saw the Beatles at second base in gigantic baseball stadiums crowded with screaming and fainting girls. Spectators were injured and a guard was knocked cold in San Francisco's Cow Palace. The Beatles traveled by unscheduled planes, helicopters, armored trucks, limousines that got dented in the crush of loving fans, and they raced down fire escapes, all in the style of their new movie, "Help." The engagement of Paul McCartney was announced and Ringo Starr married and fathered the second Beatle baby boy, Zack.

Russian Communist writer Mikhail Sholokhov, who denounced the Royal Swedish Academy for awarding the 1953 Nobel Prize for Literature to Boris Pasternak, won this year's prize for his "And Quiet Flows the Don," completed 25 years ago. Sholokhov accepted the $55,000 prize in Stockholm Dec. 10. He said he rejoiced in its contribution to the glorification of the U.S.S.R. and Communism.

The First Lady, Lady Bird Johnson, chose the war on poverty and beautification of America as "her projects." She made speeches, took Cabinet wives on a landscape and landmarks bus trip, and appeared on a TV tour of Washington on Thanksgiving. She planted a cherry tree in the spring and a red oak on Arbor Day. She planned the opening of LBJ's boyhood home as a Texas Historical Landmark and announced the library would be at the University of Texas. She hosted the first White House Festival of the Arts, 13 hours long, and she demanded back from a prospective seller — and got a letter written to her by Jacqueline Kennedy.

Mrs. Gardner Dies Christmas After Illness

Mrs. LeRoy (Luella) Gardner, 53, of 423 Riverside St., died at noon Christmas Day at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient several hours. She had been seriously ill for the past three months.

Mrs. Gardner was born Luella Carrothers Feb. 17, 1912, in Engadine. She came to Manistique as a young girl and attended Manistique Public Schools. She was married to LeRoy Gardner July 26, 1930, in Manistique.

She was a member of the First Methodist Church, the Handi-Hands Extension group and was employed at Smitty's IGA Store as a clerk.

Her husband LeRoy died Oct. 24, 1960.

Survivors include two sons, Robert W. of Chicago, Ill., and Jon D. of Manistique; two daughters, Mrs. Robert (Doris) Hubbe of Manistique and Mrs. Richard (Shirley) Hider of Milwaukee, Wis.; two brothers, Lloyd Carrothers of Manistique and Alvin of Detroit; three sisters, Mrs. Nelson Stone of Flint, Mrs. Arthur Isotala of Detroit and Mrs. Larry Mane of Pasadena, Calif., and nine grandchildren.

Complete funeral services will be held from the Messier-Broulliere Funeral Home at 10 a. m., Tuesday with Rev. Harry Davidson officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery. Friends may call after 2 p. m., today.

Hospital

Admitted to Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital were George Goun, Ensign, and Hilja Abrahamson, Grand Marais.

Discharged were George Brown, Peter Stanness, Richard Decker and Alice Linderoth and baby.

North Central's First Jets Will Seat 99 Persons

The Upper Peninsula faces 1966 — only a few days away — with hopes for economic growth and with growing urgency to prepare for the jet airliners that will be delivered to North Central Airlines in 1967.

The U. P. civilian airports are not ready for jet planes, which require longer runways than the 48-seat Convairs that North Central is using at present. The airline has not announced the date for start of jet service to the Upper Peninsula but it is expected in 1968. It will get its first jet in March, 1967.

North Central has ordered Douglas Aircraft Co. DC-9 jets. They come in two series, Nos. 10 and 30.

North Central has ordered Series 30 DC-9's. It plans first to equip them with 99 seats so that they can be served by two stewardesses. These jets can accommodate 115 seats, but this would require three girls, and the smaller capacity start gives the feeder airline opportunity to expand service with the same equipment.

The DC-9 Series 30 will be identical to the Series 10 in basic design, but with a longer fuselage and a special high-lift system to handle its increased gross takeoff and landing weights. Larger belly cargo compartments bring the capacity to a total of 895 cubic feet and the wing span is increased and the design speed is raised.

The Series 30s will be powered with either JT8D-1 or JT8-7 engines mounted on the rear fuselage. The planes will have a length of 119.3 feet, height of 27.4 feet, wing span of 93.4 feet. The jets can make several flights without refueling, reducing ground time.

Jon Thorin, manager of the Escanaba Airport, said that it had 6 jet plane visitors in 1965 and that he expected double or triple that number in the new year. The use of jet planes by industry is increasing very fast and creates a problem of accommodation at the local airport, as it is without the hard parking areas required for such planes.

The Upper Peninsula's scramble to prepare for industrial jets immediately and for jet airliners later is motivated by belief that the first facilities may set the pattern for jet service. With jets, the effort will be to get away from many airport stops and to serve regional airports. It will mean long surface travel to the airports served by the jets, with advantages for economic growth to the areas about the jet ports.

Delta County on Dec. 6 turned down by fewer than 200 votes a proposal to levy a 2 mill tax for one year to improve the Escanaba Airport and make it ready for jets. It would have been taken over by the county under the proposal.

Wide Area Has Winter Chill

The nation's midsection shivered today in the coldest weather so far this season. A bitter rain and wind storm accompanied by gale warnings raged from northern California to Puget Sound, Wash.

Temperatures sank to 20 below zero early today in Montana and subzero cold extended over sections of seven Midwestern states. Cold wave warnings were posted for the Great Plains from the Canadian border to northwestern Missouri and Kansas.

Light snow fell in the upper Mississippi Valley and rain drenched the upper Pacific Coast. Yakima, Wash., measured two inches of new snow during the night.

About 5,000 acres of cotton farm areas remained flooded today between Phoenix and Tucson in Arizona. Damage was estimated at $4 million in the hard-hit Tucson and surrounding Pima County area. At least 20 roads remained closed, restricted or detoured in the

Milk Record

Princess Green Vale Kate 5431365, a two-year-old registered Holstein cow owned by John & Gordon Philbeck, Menominee, has produced 15,480 pounds of milk and 392 pounds of butterfat in 365 days. Compared to the average U. S. dairy cow's estimated annual output of 7,830 pounds of milk containing 233 pounds of butterfat.

Apt Appellation

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI) —When Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gleider of nearby Compton became the parents of a girl on Christmas Day, they promptly named her Merry Noel.

Arizona Gov. Sam Goddard will meet today with city and county officials to assess the damage.

The Pacific Coast storm was triggered by an intense disturbance off the Oregon coast. Winds of up to 52 miles an hour battered Cape Mendocino, Calif. Heavy snows clogged roads and passes in the Cascades, the mountain areas of California and eastward to the northern Rockies.

Peking Irked By UN Action

TOKYO (UPI) —Communist China today accused the United States and the Soviet Union of collaborating to make the recent United Nations General Assembly session an "anti-China conference."

An editorial in the official Peking Peoples Daily said "the hearts of the Soviet and American leaders were beating as one" over some of the issues raised at the assembly. The U.N. again turned down Red Chinese membership.

The editorial, broadcast by the New China News Agency, said both nations were pleased with the assembly's work "for no other reason than that with the United States and the Soviet Union working hand-in-glove with each other, this session of the assembly has added to its record one evil thing after another . . ."

"When all is said and done," the Peoples Daily continued "The United Nations is still a tool in the hands of the United States . . . and is becoming more and more a place where the Soviet Union and the United States transact their political deals."

The 20th session of the assembly was a conference for opposing the revolutionary movements of the oppressed nations and oppressed peoples.

The editorial alleged there was open or behind-the-scenes U.S.-Soviet bargaining over the Viet Nam question. U.S. intervention in the Dominican Republic, the Indo-Pakistani war, Rhodesia, a United Nations peace force, the nuclear proliferation issue, the seating of Communist China and various other questions.

It alleged that while Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko was making a few perfunctory remarks of censure against the U.S. position in Viet Nam, "other dealings were going on in the back room. Gromyko held several secret talks with Dean Rusk."

"What they were up to remains secret to the outside world. But the United Press International has revealed that the United States and the Soviet Union 'had an unwritten agreement not to whip up any new crisis in Europe.'"

Archaeologists have found pieces of man-made iron nearly 5,000 years old.

Maynard Named Board Official

DAYTON, O. — Clyde A. Maynard, division manager of Mead Corp., Lynchburg, Va., paperboard mill, has been named assistant general manager of board operations for the corporation. George W. Howell, general superintendent of the Lynchburg Division, will succeed Maynard as division manager. Robert W. Neal, pulp mill superintendent, will move up to the post of production manager at Lynchburg. Maynard will move to Dayton to supervise manufacture of corrugating board at Mead's mills at Harriman, Tenn.; Lynchburg, Va.; Sylva, N. C.; and Knoxville, Tenn.

Bombs In Aden

ADEN (UPI) —Unidentified terrorists threw a hand grenade at an army patrol Sunday night near the police barracks at suburban crater, slightly injuring three British soldiers and four Arabs.

Another terrorist bomb exploded in the Maalla residential district but nobody was hurt. Army authorities said the attacks were apparently waged by the Cairo-backed "Liberation Front."

Johnson Back On Budget Job

By ALVIN SPIVAK

United Press International AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — President Johnson returned to full post-holiday workload at his ranch house today with major emphasis on planning for his next year's budget and legislative program.

The chief executive, who arrived in Texas six nights ago for a year-end stay, attended church Sunday as he had on Christmas, and relaxed with long drives around the countryside.

He refrained over the holiday weekend from commenting on the yuletide truce in Viet Nam which ended with resumption of attacks by the Communist Viet Cong. Nor was there any White House comment on a three-day stop to bombings in North Viet Nam. But Johnson did express a renewed "wish . . . for peace in Viet Nam."

The President did so in an expression of sympathy he sent through an aide to about 85 peace demonstrators who came to the vicinity of his ranch by bus from Houston.

Secret Service agent Clarence Knetsch, who said he was speaking on Johnson's behalf, told the peace marchers: "He asked me to assure you that you would receive a reply from him. He said he was glad to see so many of you out here for peace because his wish is for peace in Viet Nam, too."

A firecracker explosion threw a momentary scare into Johnson's Secret Service detail Sunday.

The firecracker was popped by a little girl as Johnson's sedan, with the President at the wheel, turned a corner on its way to his boyhood home.

When the Secret Servicemen heard the bang and saw a young man holding a 30-30 hunting rifle beside his pickup truck, across the street from the Johnson homestead, they swarmed around the youth. He identified himself as Nicky Ammons, 18, of San Antonio, Tex., and said immediately that he had not fired his weapon.

They asked Ammons, who was going deer hunting, to keep his rifle unloaded and in the truck while Johnson was in the vicinity. This turned out to be about 20 minutes, and Johnson did not seem aware during that time of the episode.
